Health Disclaimer: We do not guarantee the health of any animals offered for adoption. Any time you adopt an animal, you should take it to a licensed veterinarian as soon as possible. Your animal is, to the best of our knowledge, healthy, but will need to be started immediately on a program of preventative veterinary care. Please be aware that the animals available for adoption are rescue animals and, as such, have often been exposed to a variety of diseases. Like human illnesses, these diseases can have an incubation period of up to several weeks. If the animal you adopt shows signs of illness at any point, you must take it promptly to your veterinarian for treatment at your expense.

I have read, understand, and agree to the above health disclaimer.

How did you hear about AFH? Washington Post Radio PetFinders.com Friend Other:

CONTRACTUAL NOTICE: I am adopting the dog for myself and I agree to not give away, sell, or trade my dog, even as a gift to a friend or family member. I will neither take the dog to a shelter nor abandon the dog. I understand that I must notify AFH, without delay, if I can no longer care for or keep my dog, and agree to give AFH reasonable time to rehome my dog or place my dog in an approved foster home, if available. I must notify AFH of any behavioral problems that have occurred at any time before I return my dog and I agree to pay for a professional trainer's evaluation in case of biting or aggression.

I understand that if I adopt a dog and voluntarily sign the AFH Adoption Contract, I will be entering into a legal and binding contract with A Forever Home Rescue Foundation. Breach of any term(s) of that agreement is deemed actionable by AFH. In the event there is a violation of the agreement, I understand that I would be required to pay a minimum of $1000.00 in damages.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above contractual notice.
